1. Bel-Air Castle

Built in the 1920s by Henri Oudin, founder of the cardboard factory, and owned by the municipality since 1997, it features a large park with French gardens. It overlooks the village and hosts numerous activities. It is located near the church and the Saint-Martin spring.

2. Church and Spring of Saint Martin

It is the result of a succession of constructions and reconstructions, with its 12th-century nave and octagonal stone spire dating from the 15th century, which is unique in the region. This bell tower has been listed as a Historic Monument since 1908.
