

Marais des Prés d'Amont nature trail

Balades et randos région de Loire-Authion - Loire-Authion

Panneaux d'interprétations (Commune Loire - Authion)

On the Prés d'Amont marsh path in Brain-sur-l'Authion, you'll be overwhelmed by the peace and quiet of the islands of greenery.

At a bend in the meadow, you'll come across cows grazing peacefully. At the water's edge, in the reeds or under the foliage of the trees, a multitude of animal species are busy at work!

Useful information

Practice : Hiking

Duration : 1 h 30

Length : 4.6 km

Trek ascent : 17 m

Difficulty : Easy

Rating scale :

Technicité : 1 - Facile

Type : Loop

Themes : Fauna, Park's trail

Trek

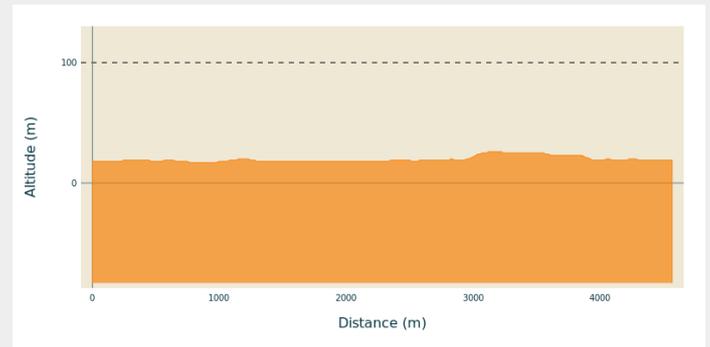

Departure : Opposite the campsite, rue du pont Caroline - Brain - sur - L'Authion

Arrival : Opposite the campsite, rue du pont Caroline - Brain - sur - L'Authion

Markings :  Sentier du Parc

Cities : 1. Loire-Authion

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 17 m Max elevation 26 m

As soon as you leave the campsite parking lot, take a grassy path along the canals that drain the Authion valley.

After crossing the dyke, the immersion is complete: passing under the willows, crossing the reedbed on duckboards, observing the educational ponds, resting in the shade of the venerable pollarded ash, chatting with the water birds, meeting the cows and horses...

Discover 6 interpretation stations on the area's environment and biodiversity:

1. Ecological restoration work" panel
2. The Roselière" panel
3. Diversity" panel
4. The pollarded ash" panel
5. Heroes, victims of fairy tales, weather ladies, amphibians" panel
6. Panels "Les "maisons des champs" des citations bourgeois" and "L'or bleu..." (The blue gold...)

On your path...

All useful information

At the water's edge

Park's trail

Advices

Circuit balisées avec des jalons à flèches jaunes.
Accès aux poussettes

How to come ?

Advised parking

Le parking entre le terrain de camping et le terrain de pétanque, Brain - sur - l'Authion